FOREWORD

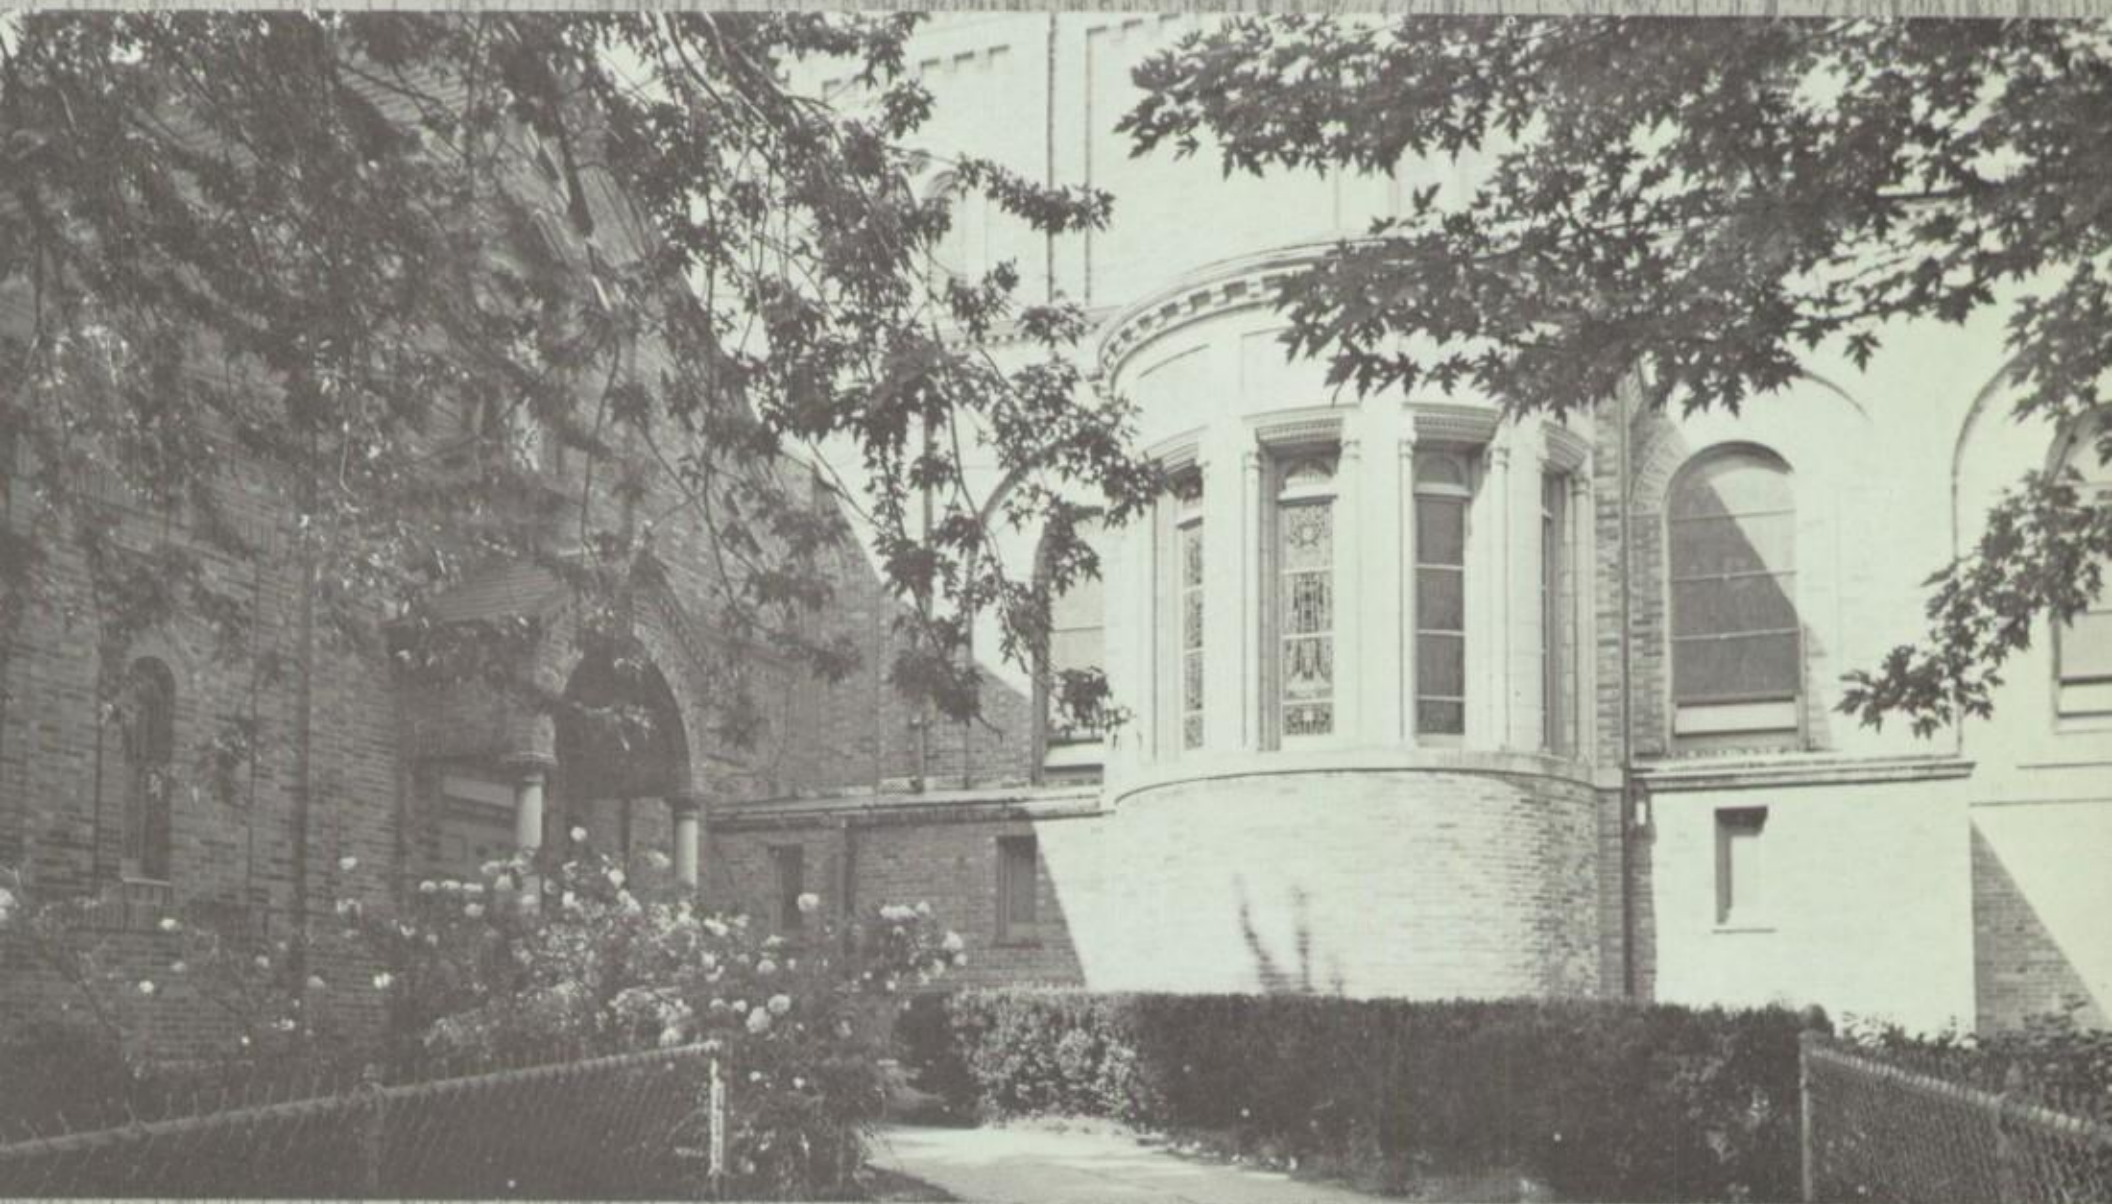

Bound within the pages of this book are fond memories of the invaluable training and great happiness we have found at Notre Dame. As we turn these pages in the years to come, we will see once again the devoted teachers and friends, and the happy scenes of our carefree youth.

Today, as we the Class of '62, leave these "sacred halls of ivy" and set out upon the stormy sea of life we place our little barks under the special protection of the "Queen of the Sea" and beseech our Blessed Lady to guide and protect us until we reach the eternal harbor--the haven of her Divine Son.

We bid farewell, but our hearts will ever remain true to the ideals of our beloved Alma Mater.

Dedication

It is with deep appreciation that we dedicate our 1962 volume of the

STELLA MARIS

to our dear

MOTHER ALODIE, S.U.S.C.

whom we honored as a religious,
and whom we admired for her kindness and understanding.

In commemorating the memorable event of Mother's Golden Jubilee as a Religious of the Holy Union of the Sacred Hearts, we joined our prayers with those of our fellow students in wishing her continued
happiness and success in her work
for souls.

Mary is my Mother,
I must go to her for help, for courage,
for guidance, for all grace.
She will lead me to the right choice,
She will show me how to find happiness.

ADMINISTRATION

Rev. Leo J. Boissonneault, S.M.
Pastor

Dear Graduates of 1962:

At the close of your High School years, it is purposeful to look back and take stock of the work accomplished, - to note its advantages and blessings as well as its deficiencies. Neither you nor any of us are ever through learning; and this appraisal will be a wonderful way to learn. This is not bookish knowledge, yet most important, - learning to know ourselves. All of us make mistakes; but these mistakes can be stepping-stones to success, no matter in which avocation we enter.

These years demanded hard work and sacrifice on the part of your parents, your teachers, yourselves. We sincerely hope that they were not in vain. As a matter of fact, the good will and the splendid spirit you showed, particularly in your last years, afford us some guarantee that they were most profitable, and that you will live up to the convictions acquired. This is the best "Thank You" you can say; say it not with your lips only but with your way of life.

Your Catholic heritage must remain for you all your most valued treasure. Learn to appreciate it ever more and be faithful to it. Education is a preparation for life: this heritage then must be lived; never set it aside.

To each and every one of you our heartfelt congratulations. Our good wishes and prayers will accompany you always.

Walk ever with God and Mother Mary!

NOTRE DAME CHAPTER NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Sister Therese Alfred presents the gavel to the newly elected president of the Notre Dame Chapter, Richard Thorne.

Joan Doherty receives the investiture robe from the sponsor, Sister Adrienne Colette.

"I accept this candle and pledge myself to uphold the principles of the National Honor Society in CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP and SERVICE. I shall do my best to be true to the ideals of Notre Dame High School, so that I may always and everywhere give glory to God."

Active members receive membership card and pin from the presiding officer, Sister Therese Alfred.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has as its aim to develop good citizenship, to provide a forum for student expression, and to assist in the management of the school insofar as student participation proves to be effective.

OFFICERS

Richard Cannon	President
Kathryn Ryan	Vice President
Lorraine Barth	Treasurer
Carole Laurendeau	Secretary

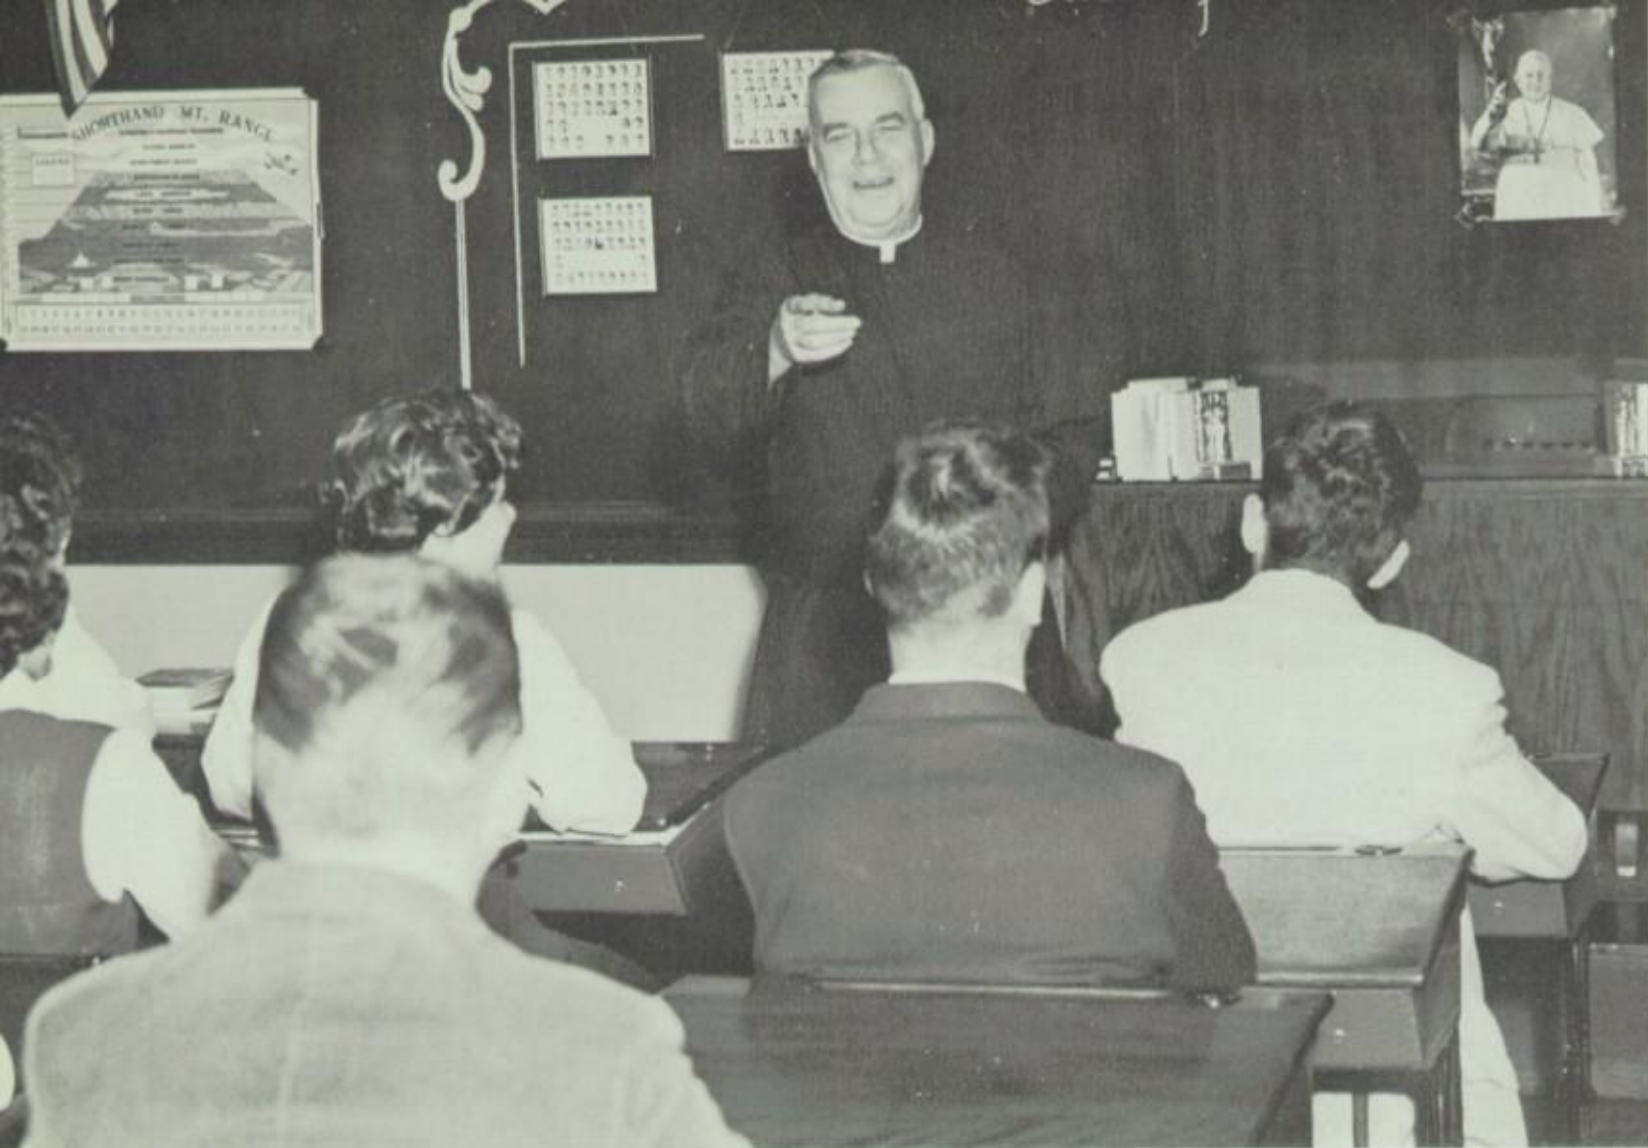

Official voting procedures are held at the beginning of each semester at which time officers and home-room representatives are elected.

Richard Cannon, president, presiding at the general assembly meeting held in the Student Council room every Wednesday afternoon.

RELIGION

It was during Father Boissonneault's absorbing religion classes that we came to a deeper realization of the meaning of life. May his timely counsel and kindly admonitions ever continue to spur us on to the Christian ideal which is our heritage.

The weekly magazine, HI-TIME, serves as an impetus to all that is noble and true in the formation of a Christlike character.

ENGLISH

Enjoying excerpts from "Macbeth" are Kenneth Hynes, Frances Kemper, Patrick Jordan, and Nancy Lavoie.

Janice Murphy and Richard Thorne work on their weekly vocabulary sheet--an asset to every Notre Dame student.

Study periods are often spent in the Library where reference material is easily accessible.

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE

We owe deep gratitude and appreciation to our principal, Sister Therese Alfred, for having taken a keen interest in each and every one of us during the past two years.

Frances Kemper and George Griffin pause to discuss their future occupations.

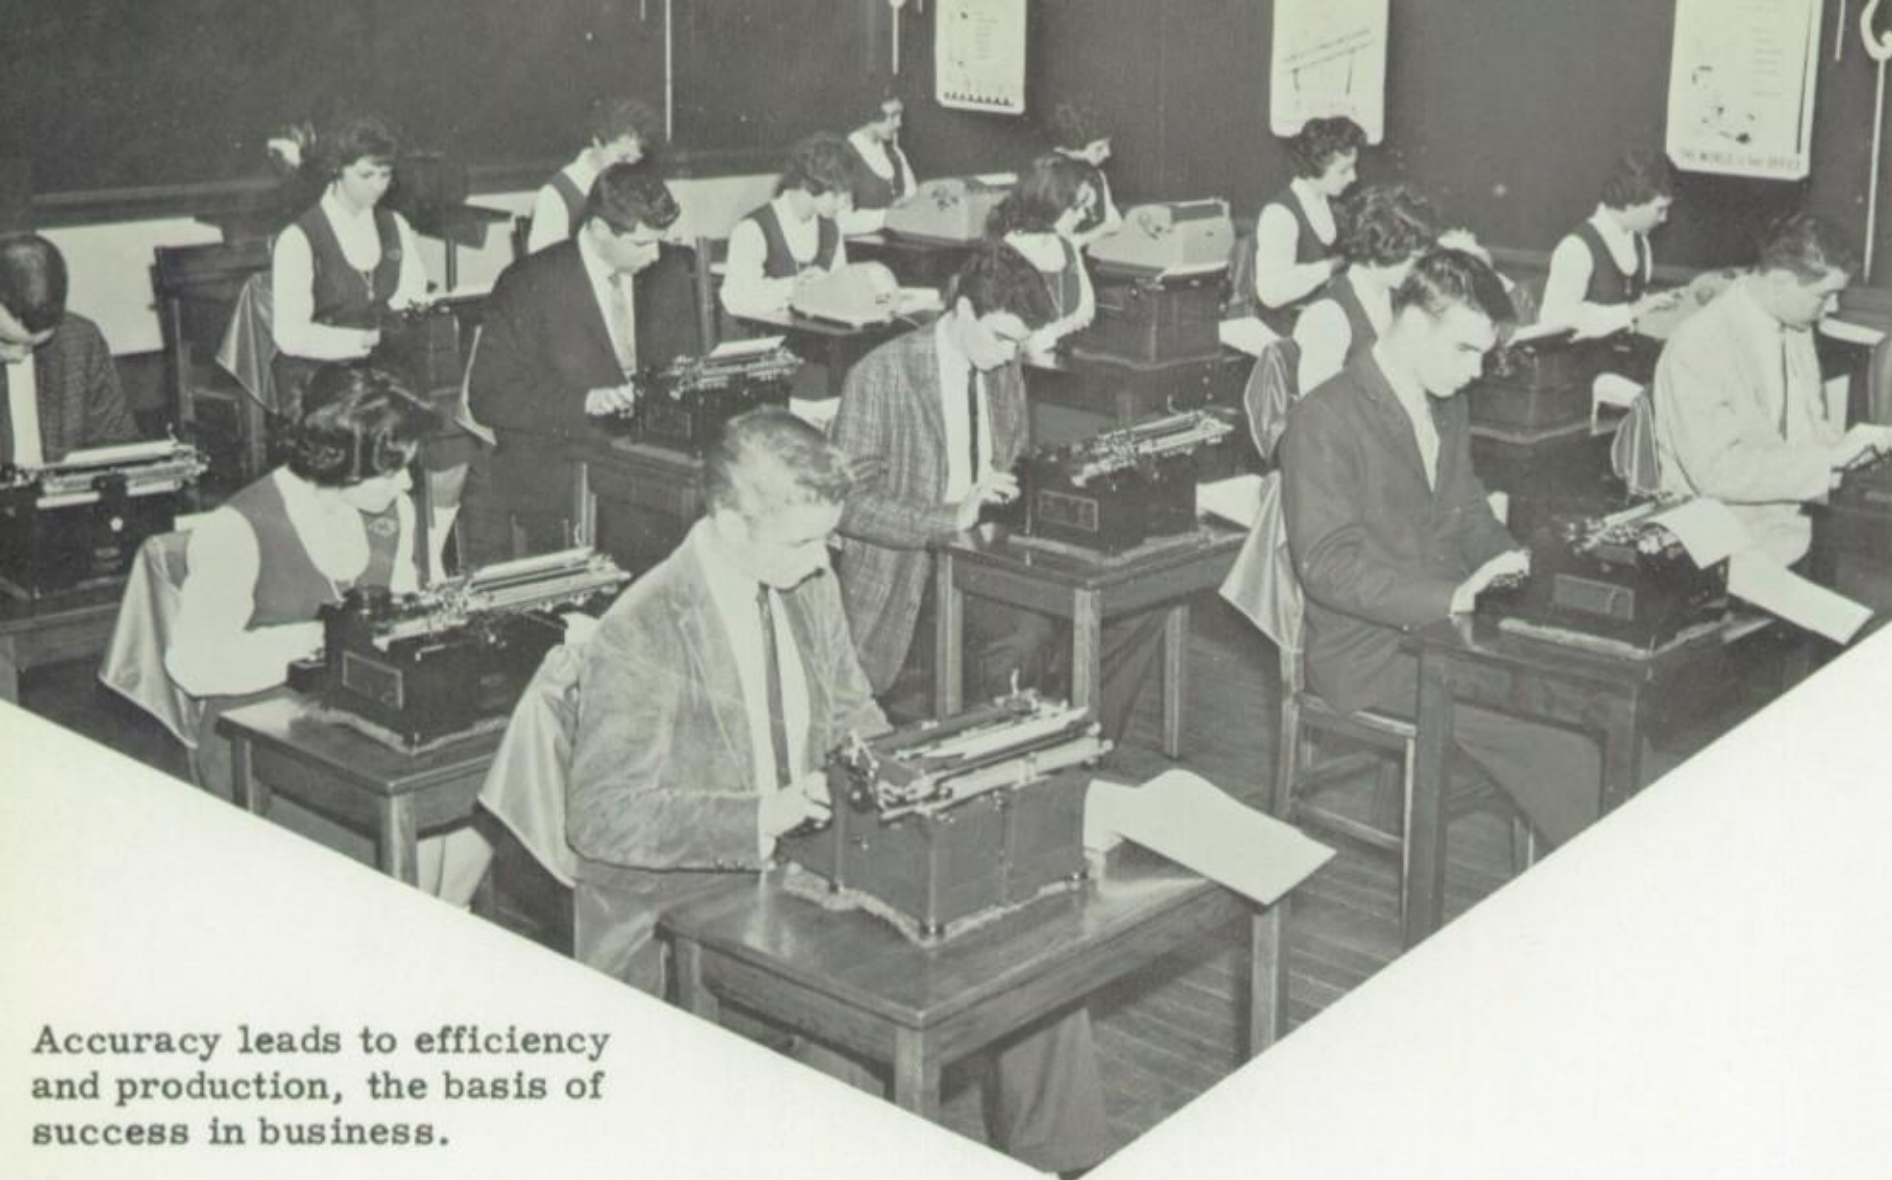

Sister Anne Genevieve, our Guidance Counselor, has spent many devoted hours showing us the various avenues of higher learning and preparing us for our future life's work.

GUIDANCE

Accuracy leads to efficiency and production, the basis of success in business.

Little "Miss IBM", Mary Maloney,
operating the new EXECUTARY.

The steps necessary for the preparation of the financial statements are being explained
by Marian Bedugnis to Kenneth Hynes, Paul Chouinard, Julia Tarpey, and Gisele Blais.

Nancy Lavoie acquiring skill at the Comptometer.

Through the efforts of Sister Celine Helena, the business students at Notre Dame are thoroughly instructed in their duties as potential businessmen and women.

Ann Sena and Kenneth Hynes preparing a monthly mailing list.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

Sister Rose Joan supervising the dissecting work done by Kevin Looney, Janice Murphy, Lawrence Gravelle, Robert Furilla, John O'Hara, and Lorraine Barth,

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Through experiments the mysterious world of Chemistry is opened to the curious minds of these students who are working diligently at their assigned task.

A close-up view of the frog seems to be intriguing for Joseph Cardello and Paul Melancon.

Keeping utensils clean and the lab in order is an important part of Chemistry as shown by Thomas McCartney and Betsy Theriault.

The microscopic world of science is being probed into by Richard Thorne, Richard Cannon and Patrick Jordan.

FRENCH

Conversational French is what makes this class so interesting! Richard Cannon, Thomas Ouellette, and Janice Murphy eagerly await Joan Doherty's questions.

MATHEMATICS

SENIOR CLASS

Front Row: E. Theriault, M. Maloney, S. Robillard, C. Bernard, J. Doherty, P. Hebert, Y. Leger, M. Bedugnis, G. Blais, A. Sena, M. Mullen. Second Row: K. Hynes, R. Thorne, C. Laurendeau, N. Lavoie, A. Shea, J. Tarpey, J. Murphy, S. Levesque, L. Barth, K. Canniff, F. Kemper, P. Chouinard, T. Ouellette. Third Row: P. Melancon, G. Griffin, R. Furilla, K. Looney, A. Zaccaro, W. Coviello, P. Jordan, E. Canty, R. Cannon, J. O'Hara, T. McCartney, J. Desharnais, L. Gravelle, J. Cardello.

Nancy and Kathy post up the latest results of the year-book drive.

Senior Councillors, Paul Melancon and Frances Kemper.

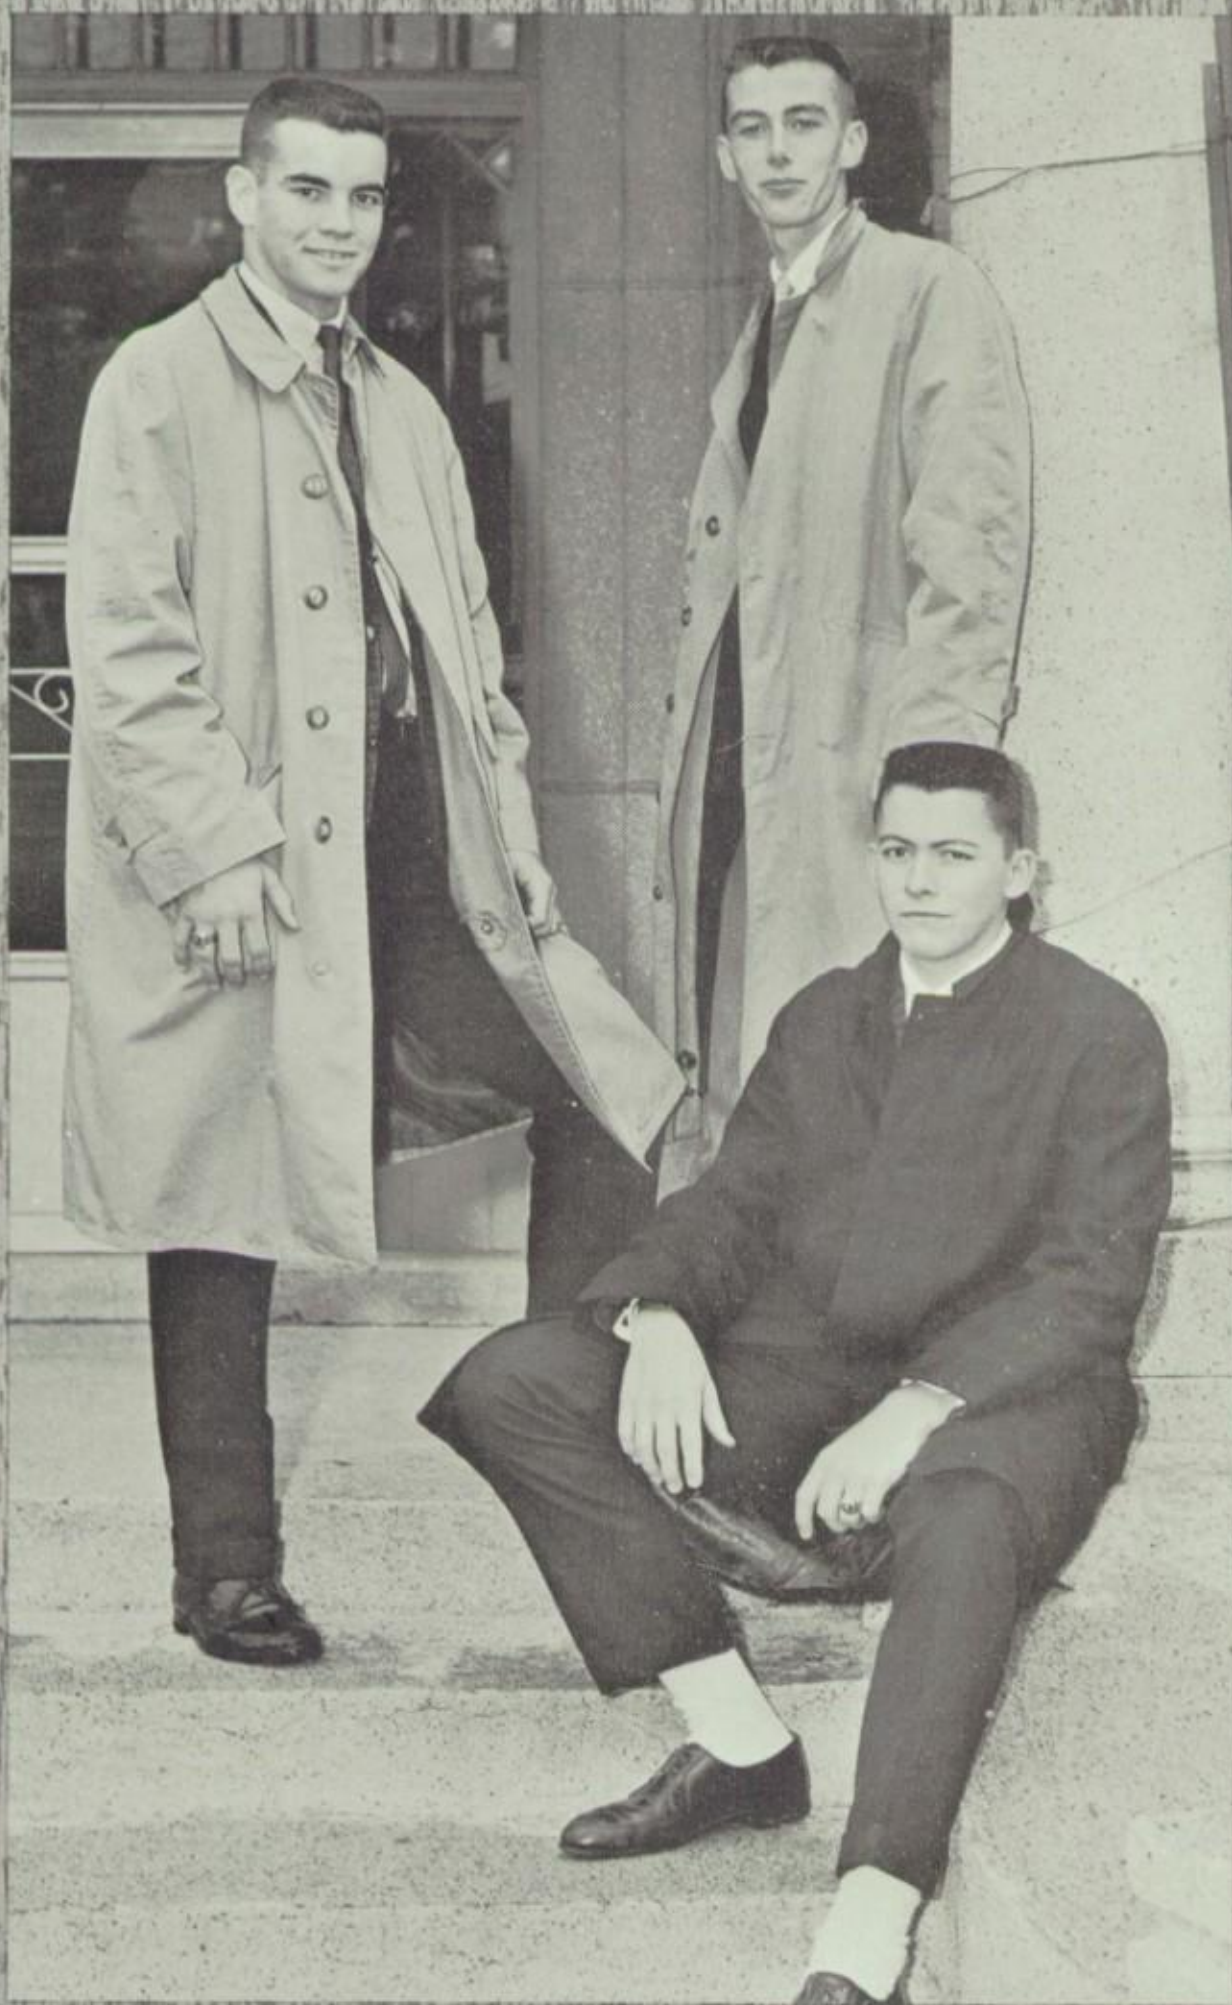

Senior boys take time out to look at the coming events of the week.

Activities

CHORAL CLUB

Members of the choral club gather around the piano for a few moments of relaxation before the rehearsal for the Spring Concert.

Mr. Convy stops to chat with Sister Celine Helena and some of the members of the Glee Club.

NOTRE DAME C.Y.O.

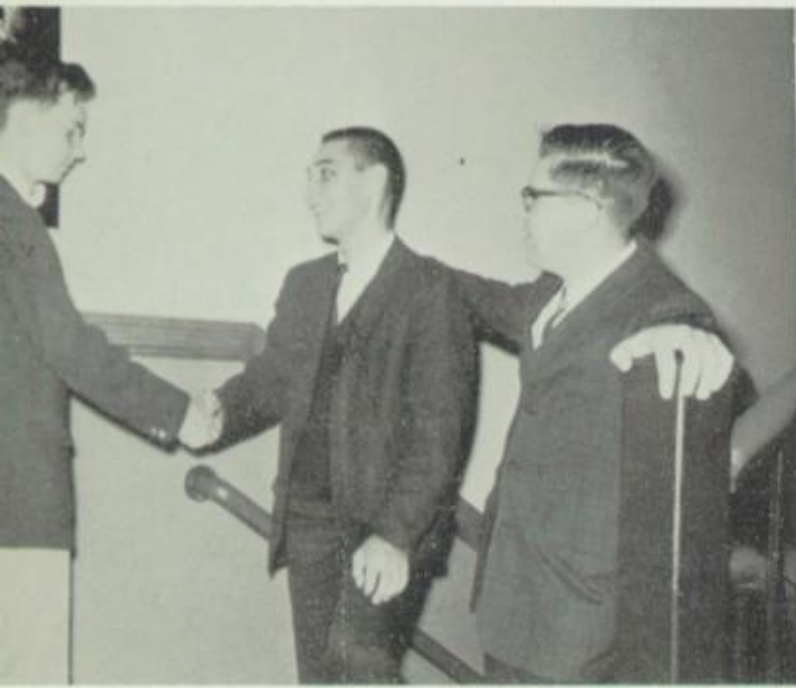

President, Patrick Jordan and Vice-President, Kathleen Canniff pause to discuss the future activities of the C. Y. O. with their spiritual director, Fr. LaPlante.

The students of Notre Dame High School exhibit their interest in the spiritual as well as the social aspects of the C. Y. O.

Nurse will I ever grow?

Richard Thorne and James Desharnais welcome William Coviello to Notre Dame High.

A memorable event of the senior year is the Blessing of Class Rings, symbol of the bond which exists between the graduates of N. D. H. and their Alma Mater.

Keeping abreast with World Affairs and controversial issues, Ann Sena eagerly looks forward to the current issue of NEWSWEEK.

Hats off to Frank Connors, Joyce Wagner, and James Desharnais who more than tripled their quota in the yearbook drive.

The principle that "there is more joy in giving than in receiving" is true of all who are affiliated with Notre Dame High School. It is through the tireless efforts and devotedness of such indefatigable people as Mrs. Paquet, Mrs. Girouard, Mr. Convy, Mr. Boyle and Mr. Goulet, that our extra-curricular activities take on a family spirit that is "sans pareil" in the realm of music, sports, excursions, and social functions. May they be rewarded a hundredfold by the Giver of gifts.
